The Lions Claws at the Veterans Theatre, Monday and Tuesday Sept. 23 and 24th

Dear Friends,
I am coming to the Veterans Theatre in the greatest serial I ever worked in. Suffice to say it is a Universal serial in which I am subjected to more dangers and risks than in any serial I ever worked in in my life. It is called "The Lions Claws" and is a real thriller. Its the biggest serial your town will see this season. Don't miss a single Episode.
Sincerely Yours
Marie Walcamp

The Late Thos. H. Bell

Thos. H. Bell, who for some years has operated the planing mill and box factory, here, and whose death occurred a few days ago, was one of the West's old timers. Born in Sarnia, Ont., he came west to Winnipeg in 1886 and was in that Metropolis during its early stages and helped to make it a real city. While there he was alderman for a term; was a member of the school board, and for several years was health officer. Leaving Winnipeg he came further west, and after trying his hand at mining, came to Lacombe and operated the planing mill. He leaves to mourn his demise a wife, now living in Lacombe, and a brother in the east.

Kaisers Speech part of German Peace Plan.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Official dispatches today from France say that the general campaign and peace maneuvers of which the speech today of Emperor William is regarded as a part, is being extended into neutral countries. The German press agencies are supplying special articles and information on the subject to the newspapers of German provinces in Holland and the Scandinavian countries and Switzerland. And in this connection the dispatches note that the German conservative leader, Ersberger, identified in the past with other peace movements, has turned up in Copenhagen, where a Scandinavian Inter-Parliamentary conference is taking place and that the Dutch socialist pacifist Troelstra has included Germany in his return trip to Holland from Northern Europe.

According to the same dispatches some light is thrown upon the veiled utterances of Count Burian a few days ago that there might be opportunities for a "calm exchange of views—some sort of direct informative discussion—which will be far from being peace negotiations," by which it is regarded as an inspired article in the Dutch press, which the German authorities have taken pains to re-publish in Germany.

This article says that the two emperors at their recent conference, decided that the time would be ripe at the beginning of the winter, when all war operations would be paralyzed to propose an armistice instead of straight peace conference, and adds that the proposal of an armistice in itself might be an indication that Germany not only was ready to free Belgium and in demit her from internal funds but also to discuss the evacuation of German colonies and even to settle the Alsace-Lorraine problem in a way to save French feelings.

A New Map

There has been in preparation for some time in the office of the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of Interior, Ottawa, a new edition of a map much sought after by prospective settlers in Western Canada, namely the Northern Alberta Homestead Map, on a scale of 12 1/2 miles to the inch.

The new issue is most comprehensive in the information contained. By an elaborate colour scheme the vast land area is divided in such a way as to indicate clearly the disposition of the whole. The various colours represent: Land finally disposed of; Lands entered for but not patented; Forest Reserves; Timber Berths; Grazing Leases; Dominion Parks and Indian reserves, also the boundaries of Dominion land agencies and the location of the land offices. In addition the general direction of coal seams, outcroppings of tar sands, gas and oil borings, is indicated.

Several new features included in the map just being published are especially worthy of note. Rectangular spaces in light buff for instance, show the lands reserved exclusively for settlement by returned soldiers. All these lands south of a red hatched line which may become available for entry as a result of cancellation or abandonment are also reserved for the same purpose.

Persons desiring copies of the map should make application to the superintendent of the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of Interior, Ottawa.

General opinion seems to be that the Huns are due for a still further big retreat in France. There can be no doubt of this if the Allies continue the war. A matter of greater interest is just when this new retreat will commence and how long it will continue.

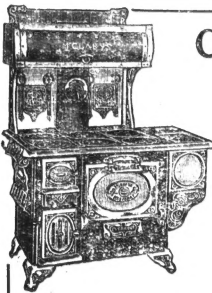

Two Lethbridge men experimented with two acres of Tomatoes on irrigated land this year with the result that up to September 7 they had picked and sold more than five thousand dollars' worth of fine ripe tomatoes all on the Lethbridge market. Here was surely a handsome pickup in a season when grain crops were a comparative failure because of drought. Also it shows what can be done with Lethbridge district land when properly handled.

Weather conditions on the western front are bad and the Allied advance has slackened up in consequence. But even with bad weather successes are being reported, which mean that the pressure is being exerted strongly and steadily against the foe everywhere.

Judicial Sale of Farm Property

Pursuant to the judgment and final order for sale, there will be offered for sale by Public Auction with the approval of a Judge of the Supreme Court of Alberta, by Clarence F. Dameron, Esquire, at the Post Office at the Village of Bentley, in the Province of Alberta, on at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, the North West Quarter (¼) of Section thirty six (36) in township forty (40), in Range Four (4), West of the Fifth Meridian, in the Province of Alberta.

The property is situate seventeen and a half miles (17 1/2) miles from the Village of Bentley at which place there is a Post Office, School, Church and several stores.

The soil consists of black loam, averaging from twelve to sixteen inches deep and the sub-soil is clay. There are about fifteen acres broken and one hundred and twenty acres more that could be broken.

The property is fenced with a two wire fence, and the buildings on the land consist of a Frame house, 22x30; chop mill and machinery, also a good water power.

The property is offered for sale subject to a Reserve Bid which has been fixed by a Judge.

The purchaser is required to pay a deposit of ten per cent. of the purchase price to the Vendor's Solicitor at the time of sale, and the balance is to be paid into court within sixty days without interest.

In all other respects the terms and conditions of sale will be the standing conditions of sale of the Supreme Court of Alberta.

Further particulars can be obtained from the Vendor's Solicitor A. M. MacDonald, Lacombe Alberta.

Dated at the town of Lacombe, in the Province of Alberta, this 5th day of September, A.D. 1918.
Clerk of the Court.
F. S. Simpson.

Anthony Jessop returns unexpectedly.

Vengeance—and the Woman
Carol Holloway is not happy in working in a picture unless there is danger attached to it somewhere. There is plenty of it for her in the next Episode which will be seen in the Veteran Theatre on Sat. Sept 14th. Miss Holloway (Bessie Blake) and William Duncan (Henry Blake) who play the leading roles, are pursued by outlaws and climb out on a tree overhanging a river just above a bad stretch of rapids and falls. From the end of the tree they drop to a flat rock and thence leap from rock to rock to the opposite shore. A slip there meant serious trouble but they got across safely and the camera registered a beautiful outdoor scene with plenty of thrills.

Motorists Asked to Economize in Use of Gasoline

Ottawa, Sept. 10.—G. W. Peterson, deputy fuel controller, has issued the following appeal to the people to assist in the conservation of gasoline supply:

Recent information discloses the fact that production is beginning to lag behind the demand from all sources. The requirements of the western harvest fields owing to the ever increasing use of mechanical motor power, has been very large and the country is now face to face with an actual gasoline shortage. Whether or when production will overtake this shortage it is difficult to say, but this is the period of the year when the consumption of gasoline is at its highest and the increased domestic demands, together with the extensive overseas requirements have rendered necessary adequate safeguards against a possible shortage.

Under the circumstances the fuel controller appeals to the people of Canada to exercise the most rigid economy in the consumption of gasoline until such time as the public is officially notified that no further necessity exists for extraordinary economy. This may be effected in two directions, first by eliminating entirely all unnecessary use of motor cars, and secondly by the economical use and handling of gasoline.

The public is particularly requested to discontinue the use of motor driven vehicles on Saturdays, with the following exceptions: Tractors and motor trucks employed in actual transportation of freight, vehicles of physicians used in performance of professional duties, ambulances, fire equipment, police wagons and conveyances used for funerals, railway equipment using gasoline, repair outfits employed for telephone and public service companies, motor companies on errands necessary in rural communities where transportation of steam or electricity is not available.

In regard to economy in handling it has been estimated that strict observance of the following rules would conserve one and a half million gallons of gasoline daily in the United States. In Canada the saving would be proportionately equal.

1.—Avoid spilling gasoline. 2.—Don't permit leaks. 3.—Use no gasoline for washing. 4.—Do not leave tanks or cans open. 5.—Waste no lubricating oil.

While the necessity of rigid compliance with the fuel controllers' appeal is very real, Mr. Magrath hesitates to embody his request in formal and drastic regulations owing to the fact that successful enforcement of such regulations would involve very considerable inconvenience and would probably necessitate a card system in connection with gasoline consumption. Such being the case the fuel controller has decided to observe the effect of an appeal for voluntary conservation. Should this not be found sufficiently or quickly effective, he will, of course, have no other option than to embody the necessary restrictions in formal regulations and to provide for this enforcement.

CLASSY ANIMAL ACTS WITH HUGO BROS. CIRCUS

Trained Ponies, Monkeys, Goats, Dogs, Donkeys, Llamas, Baboons, Pigs, Horses and Elephants. All to be seen with Hugo Bros.

And one of the feature acts that delights the younger patrons of the Hugo Bros. Shows is the trained dogs and ponies. These beautiful little animals do everything but talk, and their drills, marches and dances are a source of continual wonder and delight in the youngsters, and another feature that delights all the patrons from six to sixty is the wonderful performances of the trained goats, monkeys, pigs and elephants. In fact besides the aerial, wild west and other acts of every description a complete trained animal performance is given. Words cannot describe the many remarkable qualities of almost human intelligence shown by trained animals of the above shows. Besides ponies, goats, monkeys, baboons, pigs and dogs, that do everything but talk and with an array of funny costumes to furnish the fun. The greatest lady and gentleman performers that will furnish the thrills, in feats of daring, skill and beauty. Now the Hugo Bros. shows will exhibit at Lacombe on Saturday, Sept. 28th afternoon and night and will be worth driving miles to see, so don't fail to come.

Under the terms of the new United States Army draft there is little chance that any farmers will be taken for fighting service. The authorities evidently realize the absolute necessity for speeding up in the field of production and the farmers will be left alone when the next call is made.

Six thousand cars of grain are out-tracked at Minneapolis with insufficient labor to handle them properly. The result is that an embargo has been placed on grain shipments to the twin cities for the time being. The explanation of this state of affairs is that someone in charge must have hindered. Even with the government in full control mistakes seem bound to happen.

It is charged that profiteers are taking toll from the people of Winnipeg in connection with their limited coal supply. If the offense can be proven someone should go to jail. This is no time for hesitation in dealing with people of this kind.

Energetic Red Cross Branch Formed

Last Tuesday evening Miss Pinkham, Provincial secretary of the Red Cross Society, accompanied by Andrew Gilmour M.P.P., visited the thriving community of Haynes for the purpose of organizing a branch of the society in that place. There was a record turn out, the church being fairly filled with residents of the district, who appeared most enthusiastic to do their part for the Red Cross. Miss Pinkham and Mr. Gilmour gave short outlines of the work of the society, after which the election of officers was held. Mrs. J. L. Walters was elected chairman, with Mrs. Sherburne, as secretary, and these ladies will be assisted by a strong executive committee. Already this branch has got to work, and the last report is that in the neighborhood of $200 has been subscribed. Mr. Gilmour will continue the work of organizing various parts of the district, and finds that the citizens of the country are anxious to help along the good work. Red Cross funds are needed now as never before, and our people realize this fact.

Clayton Fincham Killed

Another of our boys has been killed in action "Somewhere in France." The sad news of the effect was received in Lacombe on Saturday last. Clayton Fincham was one of Lacombe's pioneer boys having lived here most of his life. He enlisted about two years ago in an engineer battalion, and went to France shortly afterwards. In his last letters he reported having met a number of boys from here, and told how glad he was to see them. Before enlisting Clayton was in the employ of W. F. Puffer, and had a host of friends in the community. His mother, since his enlistment and the death of his father, has resided in Massina, New York. The sympathy of her many friends goes out to her in her great bereavement.

About Conserving

Like every other suggestion of the Food Controller, or Fuel Controller, the request that our citizens make an effort to conserve gasoline was generally observed by our loyal citizens on Sunday last. Motorists were "off the road," and we think that nearly every car that was running was running on account of something more than "joy riding." As usual with these requests, there were a few who raised a howl at the powers that be for daring to suggest that Sunday joy riding be cut out for a time. It is to the credit of our citizens that on Sunday last, motorists were greatly in the minority, in fact only two or three in the whole vicinity were heard to offer objections—and these few always make a kick when the opinions of those whose duty it is to govern Canada conflict with their narrow minded ideas. They do not need to be considered. Our citizens can rest assured that if there was not great necessity for conserving gasoline they would not be asked to deny themselves the pleasure of motoring on Sunday. Gasoline is needed this fall for the army, and a shortage "over there," would mean death of thousands of our bravest who are in the thick of the greatest and bloodiest battles the world has ever seen. The Americans air fleet is getting into the fight in thousands; submarine chasers by the hundreds are being launched; tanks are more and more in evidence, and a thousand and one things needed to conserve men and which use gasoline as motive power are being poured into France and other allied countries. It is only by strict conservation of gasoline that enough can be secured to carry on the gigantic war operations. This fact should be sufficient for all true Canadians;

Anyone who objects to putting himself to a little inconvenience in order that the lives of our soldiers can be saved, should not be allowed to live in a community of white people. Their proper place is in Germany, Austria or Turkey, and any loud mouthed, light-headed person who continues to rail against the orders of the men who are trying their best to conserve our resources, should immediately be placed in an internment camp, or in the Ponoka Asylum.

Notice to Tractor Owners

At the meeting of Crown, No. 329, held on Saturday last, the following Bylaw, was passed: "That all tractors and threshing outfits must protect themselves with reference to crossing of all bridges and culverts in the above municipal District, as all owners doing damage to any bridges or culverts in the Municipal District of Crown will be prosecuted for same, and this bylaw be published in the Western Globe." J. M. Douglas, Reeve.

Oliver School Fair

The weather man awoke in excellent humor on the morning of the 13th when the children from the school districts around, joined with Olive in giving to the parents and friends a very interesting and surprising exhibition of what they could do. The needle work done by the girls of all ages was a delight to all who examined it. The boys and girls both made a fine showing in vegetable and fruit. The boys will have to go some to beat. But it took the girls in the baking class to show the boys what kind of cooks they mean to be. Look carefully over the list, boys.

All schools responded freely with drawings and essays all work showing care and painstaking effort and the collections of wild flowers were very interesting and well done.

The poultry and live stock sales were very good but too few entries. Come boys and girls, bring on enough exhibits next year to have a stock parade at the close of the afternoon.

After all had done justice to the dinner provided by the ladies of the Institute the sports began on the roving grounds surrounding the Olive school. And the boys' wish to thank the sports com. and all the men who helped to make the afternoon an enjoyable one for little and big alike. We would also like a rousing cheer for the girls who played Basketball, Olive team carrying off the prize.

We also wish to thank the teachers and parents who helped so ably with the judging, etc. and if any institute wishes to arouse real live interest among parents and children just try a school fair.

Moral Reform Needed

We have not noticed any very active attempt being made by the moral reform league to put down the gaming and dissipated sort of affairs in certain quarters of this fair town. As we stated a couple of weeks ago, cases of the grossest immorality are known to our citizens. We doubt if there is one person in Lacombe who does not know of cases we refer to. It is a disgrace to our town that conditions such as we refer to are allowed to exist. If, as some say, there is no law governing certain cases, we know there is a law governing the raising of children under immoral conditions and it might be well to get busy along this line.

St. Andrew's Church

"Should titles be abolished?"—an issue arising out of the great war—will be the subject next Sunday evening at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, morning service 11 a.m., subject "A Great Adventure."

The St. Andrew's Young Peoples Club will open the winter's activities with a Hot Potluck social next Monday evening in the Church Parlors at 8 p.m.

St. Andrew's Hustlers, the organized Boys Class, meets every Wednesday after school, for mid-week training.

Cattle Stealing Case

A man named Egan, who was starting a cattle company in the vicinity of Eckville, is in the toils charged with cattle stealing, defacing brands, and other little acts contrary to law. Detective Scott, of the provincial force was instrumental in his arrest, and deserves much credit for the very able manner in which he ferreted out this case. It appears that Egan has recently come from the south country and while driving a bunch of cattle up here managed to accumulate quite a number of strays with his own. Whether his action in this case was intentional or accidental remains to be proved, and in the meantime Egan is in jail awaiting trial. Several well known western cattlemen have a very narrow escape from being entangled in this mess quite innocently.

"Shower" for Miss E. Simpson

Mrs. J. T. Parker was the hostess on Wednesday evening last, at a "Miscellaneous Shower" given in honor of Miss Ella Simpson who is soon to leave Lacombe. The Parker home was very prettily decorated for the occasion, and guests were received at the door by Miss Dorothy Parker, Mrs. Parker and Miss Annie doing the honors and making everyone feel perfectly at home. Games of various kinds were indulged in during the evening, the greatest interest being taken in the guessing contest, in which Miss Jessie (Gibbs) and Miss Belle Simpson carried off the first prize. Miss Maudie Simpson, the second. A very large number of beautiful presents were brought for the "shower," including cut glass, hand painted china, silverware and linen, showing in a remarkable degree the high esteem in which the recipient, Miss Ella Simpson, is held by the citizens of Lacombe. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening and at a late hour the guests departed, voting Mrs. Parker and her daughters to be ideal entertainers. Among those present were: Mr. A. M. Campbell, Mrs. J. W. Fortune, Mrs. J. Parker, Miss Ella Simpson, Beatrice Simpson, Miss Simpson, Jean Gilmour, Nancy Calder, Jean Landy, Ruth Landy, Winnie Talbot, Mooney, Agnes Caldwell, Alice Inskip, Isaac Cameron, Etta Cameron, Ida Vikersson, Carrie Glass, Nancy

K. Of C. To Appeal For Support For Work in France.

The Knights of Columbus have undertaken a Dominion wide appeal to secure money for huts for soldiers overseas. The drive begins on September 15th, and closes on September 23. The money to be raised is to be devoted to the work of the Army Hut Association. It has done wonderful work overseas in the past two years, having established huts at Bramshott, Whitley, Seaford, Coed, Shorncliffe, Purfleet and Buxton. There are also two clubs in the city of London under the direction of this association, huts at Le Treport, Etaples, and also tents at the stationary hospitals, casualty clearing stations. Chapels and reading rooms, huts with the wounded hospital at Orpington, and McGill at Boulogne, also at No. 8 French Canadian Hospital at St Cloud.

These huts provide for recreation and amusement, food, soft drinks and everything which would add to the comfort and need of the soldiers as well as chapels for religious services. The huts perform the twofold service of Chapel for Catholic soldiers, and recreation huts for all soldiers regardless of creed.

None of the officers are paid by the association, not a cent of profit has been made or will be made. The books of the association are regularly audited. The money is to keep the Canadian soldiers clean in soul and body. The huts are for the use of the soldiers. Welcome clubs are maintained in the city of London where rest is provided for the men and proper amusement is afforded them when on leave. The information Bureau is the source of connection between the soldier and his relatives at home.

In order that the association may carry on its work it is necessary for it to have money. The knights of Columbus have agreed to raise the money required, and the endeavor is now made to secure the sum of $500,000. The knights of Columbus act as trustees, and the money will be disposed of under the military chaplain service, regularly recognized by the Canadian government.

General Turner, commander of the Canadian force in England, has endorsed the campaign for the drive, wishing it every success and hoping that all Canadian people will respond to the call. Sir Edward Kemp, overseas minister of militia, has written to the central campaign committee at Ottawa, stating that the Army Hut Association is worthy of support, and hoped that the Knights of Columbus would succeed in raising the $500,000 in order to help the association to carry on its work. His Honor, Lieut-Governor Brett is the honorary president for the province of Alberta.

Alberta Leads in
the Flying Force

Imperial Royal Flying Corps,

Calgary, Alta, Sept 9, 1918
To—Mr. H. G. Morrison,
Chairman, R. A. F. Committee,
Lacombe, Alberta.

Dear Sir—
I would be very much obliged if you would make arrangements to have the attached circular inserted in your local press. For the past six months there has been considerable talk in regard to casualties in the Royal Air Force while undergoing training. This circular explains the situation thoroughly.

I wish also to express my appreciation for the good work completed in the past month. The Province of Alberta secured more recruits in regard to the number of pilots enlisted for the West than Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and British Columbia. For this reason I kindly ask you to make every effort to bring this month's quota of men up to the standard reached last month.

Thanking you for your past favors, I beg to remain,
Yours truly, M. G. Dover, Capt.
Royal Air Force

The Circular

During the past few months a number of newspaper articles appear from time to time giving erroneous statistics regarding casualties in the Royal Air Force Training Squadrons. The public have, therefore, received an incorrect impression. The purpose of this letter is to furnish authentic statistics, in order that you may be in possession of the facts regarding the above question. I should be obliged if you would extend the same co-operation as you have in the past, and see that the information given below is placed in the hands of your local newspaper.

For the purpose of preparing statistics the total number of flights and casualties throughout the entire R.A.F. during a certain period was obtained. For the purpose of comparison similar statistics were obtained from training Squadrons operating in England. In the R.A.F. there were in Canada 36,253 flights, with 13,566 hours flying, during which there were 59 crashes, 36 of which were admissions to hospital. The English statistics give 9,000 flights, with 4,000 hours flying, during which there were 58 crashes (practically the same) 16 were admissions to hospital.

From the above figures you will see that for four times as many flights, with three times as many hours in the air, the number of Canadian casualties is practically the same as the number of English casualties.

You will note that the above figures in Canada cover approximately 813,860 miles, or 34 times around the globe, thus we have one fatality for 116,280 miles, or for 5 times around the globe. The conclusions to be drawn from the above figures are so evident that no further explanation is required.
